

FCC,

I do not wish to have my independent ISP carrier to be subjected to the predatory practices of the large companies. Having Bell South and others like them, drive the independents out of the market can only raise the cost and reduce the service. You are a public agency, so do your job and keep the fair access available to the independents.

Tiburcio Gonzalez